Experience

Tim Rood is Head of Government & Industry Relations for SitusAMC. In his role, Tim interfaces with policy makers and influencers on matters related to residential, multi family, and commercial industries.

Prior to joining SitusAMC, Tim served as the Chairman of The Collingwood Group, which he co-founded in 2009. The Collingwood Group's primary focus was the financial services sector, and the firm offered advisory and consultative services combined with access to decision makers, financial sponsors, corporate boards, and senior industry executives. Tim is also a former Fannie Mae executive where he was part of the leadership of a skunkworks program inside of the eBusiness group focused on electronic processing, closing, quality control, and delivery.

Tim brings nearly three decades of mortgage industry and entrepreneurial experience to SitusAMC. He advises organizations to optimize the business opportunities and to mitigate and manage the risks in and around Washington, DC. Mr. Rood is a sought after and regular contributor to various national media outlets including CNBC, Bloomberg Television, FOX Business News, Washington Post, New York Times, Wall Street Journal, and the American Banker.
