

Joe Tyrrell

President, ICE Mortgage Technology

Joe Tyrrell is President of ICE Mortgage Technology, the leading digital mortgage technology platform and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Intercontinental Exchange, Inc. (ICE: NYSE). ICE continues to bring efficiency and transparency to the mortgage finance industry through ICE Mortgage Technology. Through the Ellie Mae acquisition in September 2020, the expanded platform, for the first time, will bring together all the key stakeholders, MERS, Simplifile and Ellie Mae, from origination to the final settlement under one platform.

Tyrrell previously served as Chief Operating Officer of Ellie Mae prior to ICE's acquisition. As COO, he oversaw technology, product strategy, product management and the business and corporate development efforts. He joined Ellie Mae in 2002 and held various leadership positions including EVP of Corporate Strategy, SVP of Corporate Strategy, SVP of Client Management and Business Development. Tyrrell previously served as VP at Provident Financial in addition to other executive positions within the mortgage industry.

Tyrrell holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Management from St. Mary's College.
