

Teresa Bryce Bazemore

Teresa Bryce Bazemore joined the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco as president and chief executive officer on March 15, 2021. She has more than 25 years experience as a Senior Executive in the mortgage banking field including building both mortgage insurance and services businesses. Ms. Bazemore has proven expertise at creating and implementing strategic plans to increase market share and profitability, while improving the risk profile – even during challenging economic times.

Teresa currently serves on the Board of Directors of the First Industrial Realty Trust and the T Rowe Price Funds.

From July 2008 through April 2017, Teresa served as the President of Radian Guaranty where she led the strategic planning, business development and operations of the mortgage insurance business line. She has also led information technology and governmental affairs for Radian Group. Prior to her position as President, Teresa served as Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, as well as the Chief Risk Officer of Radian Group.

Ms. Bazemore has held a multitude of professional appointments including: Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia Economic Advisory Council; Chair, Research Institute for Housing America; MBA Board of Directors; Fannie Mae National Advisory Council; Consumer Advisory Council of the Federal Reserve; and Advisory Committee of the American Association of Residential Mortgage Regulators.

Over the course of her career, Teresa has received a host of awards and accolades including the 2017 Paradigm Award from The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Philadelphia and being named one of the Top 20 Leading Industry Women by Mortgage Banking Magazine

Teresa received her B.A. from the University of Virginia and her J.D. from Columbia University.