

Michelle L. Rogers

Partner & Board Member

Washington, DC
(202) 349-8013
mrogers@buckleyfirm.com

Michelle L. Rogers represents institutions in a wide range of litigation matters, including government enforcement actions, class action litigation, regulatory examinations, and internal investigations.

A Partner in the Washington, D.C., office of Buckley LLP, Ms. Rogers has represented clients in matters involving the DOJ, CFPB, federal and state bank regulators, HUD, VA, FHFA, Ginnie Mae, SBA, and state attorneys general, and in cases involving the False Claims Act, Program Fraud Civil Remedies Act, Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act, Truth in Lending Act, Fair Housing Act, Equal Credit Opportunity Act, Civil Rights Act, Community Reinvestment Act, and unfair, deceptive, or abusive acts or practices (UDAP and UDAAP) statutes under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and various state laws. She also has extensive experience managing complex discovery and production issues, including using advanced analytics.

An acknowledged authority in her field, Ms. Rogers is a Fellow of the American College of Consumer Financial Services Lawyers, and is a member of the editorial board of the Consumer Financial Services Law Report. She was recognized by Mortgage Banker Magazine as a 2021 “Powerful Woman in Mortgage Banking.” Ms. Rogers has also been recognized by Chambers USA for Nationwide Financial Service Regulation: Banking (Enforcement & Investigations), Legal 500 for Financial Services: Litigation, Financial Services: Regulation, Fintech, and Cyber Law, Super Lawyers for Banking, and Best Lawyers for Litigation - Banking and Finance (2018-2022). She is a member of Buckley’s partner board. Prior to joining the firm as a founding member in 2009, she was an Associate at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher and Flom, LLP. Ms. Rogers received a J.D. from the American University, Washington College of Law (summa cum laude), and a B.A. from Franklin and Marshall College (magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa).