

Chris Boyle

President of Home Lending

Chris Boyle is the President of Home Lending at Roostify. A known and respected veteran participant in the mortgage lending space, Chris leads all client-facing functions for Roostify.

Chris has over 35 years of experience helping lenders with complex operations and needs surrounding the mortgage lending marketplace. Chris spent 30 of those years in various roles at Freddie Mac, focusing on client engagement, client management and client-facing technology, She was also involved in areas of risk management, marketing and sales, and was a member of Women's Interactive Group. Prior to Freddie Mac, Chris held leadership positions in capital markets, sourcing and sourcing strategy, operations and IT with NBD, Carteret S&L, and Goldome Bank.

Chris is a long-time advocate of diversity, inclusion, equality and accessibility in all environments, and is passionate about American homeownership and providing a digitized platform to make the dream of owning a home accessible to all Americans. Chris received her Bachelor's degree in Accounting and Finance from Hilbert College.