

Executive Biography

Amy Brandt, Operating Executive Director

Amy Brandt, Operating Executive Director at Serent Capital. Founded in 2008, Serent Capital is a leading lower-middle market private equity firm focused on investing in high growth service and technology businesses. Amy works closely with the portfolio company management teams as a hands-on resource providing oversight, guidance, and support.

Most recently, Amy was the president and chief executive officer of First American Docutech, providing an end-to-end integrated digital mortgage experience that enables lenders to accelerate the real estate closing process. She currently sits on the First American Advisory Council. In addition to her executive career, Amy currently serves on the boards of Maxwell, InhabitIQ, SunToWater Technologies and the Institute of International Education.

Amy has over 20 years of successful experience as an accomplished entrepreneur and senior executive. She is a multi-award winner, including HousingWire's Vanguard Award and Institute of International Education's Centennial Medal.

Prior to First American Docutech, Amy was the president of originations and corporate technology at New Penn Financial, and prior to Penn Financial, the chief operating officer of Prospect Mortgage.

Amy earned a JD from Arizona State College of Law and a BA in political science from the University of Southern California.

###