

Kirk Willison
VP for Government & Industry Relations
Arch Mortgage Insurance

Kirk Willison is the chief government affairs advocate for Arch MI. He is responsible for the company's outreach to Congress, federal regulators and industry trade groups emphasizing the dual purpose of mortgage insurance: grow affordable homeownership and protect taxpayers from losses at the GSEs.

He has extensive experience in the mortgage industry, serving in senior public affairs capacities at Altisource Portfolio Solutions, Ginnie Mae, Freddie Mac and Countrywide Home Loans.

Kirk also publishes the Arch MI Capital Commentary newsletter and produces the Arch MI PolicyCast video podcast series, both focused on the nation's housing policies and distributed to more than 150,000 mortgage industry professionals, congressional offices and influential leaders within the housing policy ecosystem.

Kirk is a native of California and a graduate of UCLA. He lives outside of Washington, DC. In his spare time, he runs, plays softball and consumes as much political news as humanly possible.
